On July 10, 2023, Dazed partnered with London gallery Mimosa House to launch EXCHANGE: LONDON, an initiative powered by Burberry aimed at fostering collaboration and supporting queer creative communities. Following Pride month, the inaugural edition of EXCHANGE brought together exhibitions, performances, and DJ sets across multiple venues in central London.

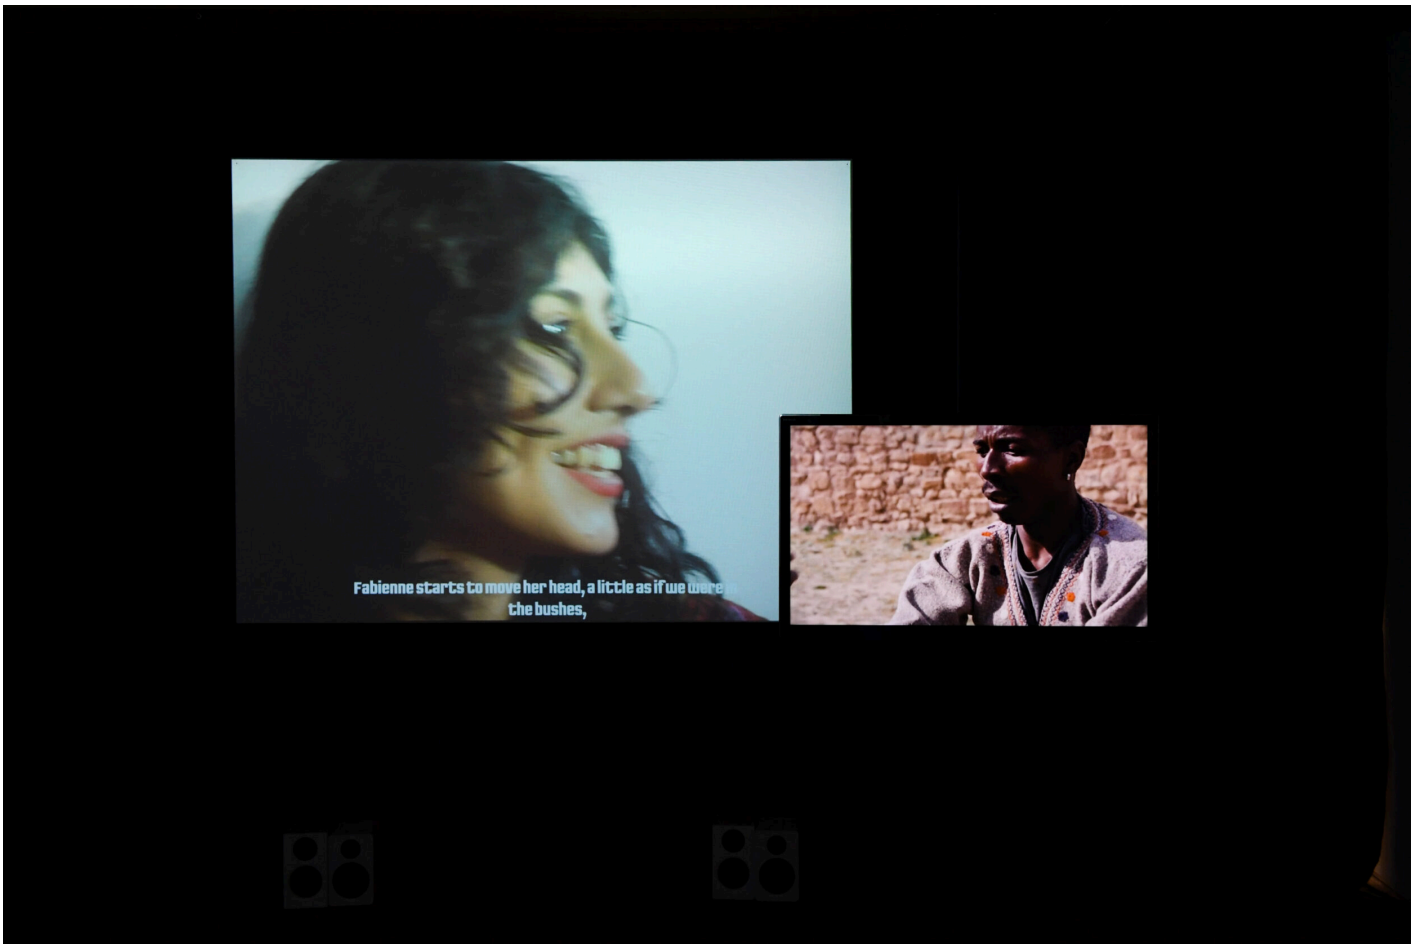

The evening began at Mimosa House, where audiences encountered video installations by choreographer and performer Marikiscrycrycry and Mexican video artist Vir Andres Hera. The programme continued with live performances by Romeo Roxman Gatt, before moving to Dazed Space at 180 Strand for further performances curated by Daria Khan, including Agnes Questionmark's Attempt 1: Transgenic Mutation Experiment (2022).

The night concluded with an afterparty at East London queer venue Queen of Adelaide, featuring DJ sets by Nadine Noor and Basmati. As part of the initiative, Burberry made a donation to Mimosa House to support its ongoing work with emerging queer artists beyond Pride month.
